

EDITH NOBLE BREWER
SUES FOR A DIVORCE

Artist Avers Her Husband Was Not Legally Separated From His First Wife When He Wed Her.

Original to The Evening World.

CINCINNATI, May 5.—Alleging that she has discovered that William Seymour Brewer of No. 80 Walker Street, New York, writer and literary agent, had been married and was not legally divorced before she was wed to him in this city Jan. 23, 1906, Edith A. M. Noble Brewer applied for a divorce hereto and asked for the custody of their ten-year-old daughter Helen.

The plaintiff avers that Brewer's first wife was Ida Jessup and that a divorce decree was granted him on Jan. 26, 1888, at Hamilton, O. This decree she declares was invalid because legal service was not secured.

FORDHAM ALUMNI "PREPARE"
Twenty-five Doctors' Form Corps for Military Service.

A letter is on the way to President Wilson informing him that twenty-five members of the Fordham University Medical School alumni met this afternoon and organized a physicians and surgeons' preparedness corps for the defense of the country. President Alumni Association was elected Captain and George F. Leitner, M. D., First Lieutenant.

The members have adopted requesting

AMERICAN MARINES LAND IN SANTO DOMINGO

Protection of Legion Thought Wise Because of Political Conditions in the Dominican Republic.

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, May 5.—Marines were landed to-day from the American converted cruiser Prairie for the protection of the American Legation.

The situation growing out of the attempt of factional leaders to overthrow the administration of President Jimenes is critical.

President Jimenes has ordered the Governor of Santo Domingo City to take charge of the forces under Gen. Ferrer. The rural guards have been placed under the command of authorities appointed by the Chief Executive.

WORKED TOGETHER—GONE!
Married Man and Maiden Are Sought in General Alarm.

Benjamin Liebowitz, a married man with two children, disappeared from his home at No. 402 East One Hundred and Seventy-eighth Street on May 3.

Benjamin and Matilda worked in the same shop at No. 130 West Twenty-eighth Street.

Mrs. Liebowitz asked Detective John Harkness of the Bureau of Missing Persons, in the Bronx, to-day if he didn't think these coincidences were more or less suspicious.

Detective John Harkness thereupon sent out a general alarm for Benjamin Liebowitz and Matilda Friedman.

$10,000 JOB FOR HARKNESS.
P. S. Lawyer Who Defied Thompson Gets a Boost.

Leroy T. Harkness, Assistant Counsel in the Legal Department of the Public Service Commission at a salary of $7,500 a year, was to-day placed in administrative and executive charge of all rapid transit matters, responsible for which he will receive a salary increase to $10,000 a year.

Mr. Harkness will receive the same salary as George S. Coleman, chief counsel of the Commission. During one of the Thompson Committee hearings, Mr. Harkness defied the Senator to prefer charges against him. Harkness' challenge was the result of his chief colleague Craven not to answer questions.
